Dalal Street in focus as LIC IPO opens for subscription

New Delhi, May 4 (IANS) The Dalal Street would be in focus as the subscription for the initial public offering of insurance major Life Insurance Corporation has opened on Wednesday.

The long-awaited Initial Public Offering (IPO) for the LIC will remain open to subscription till May 9.

The government has brought down the issue size from 5 per cent to 3.5 per cent.

It will be a landmark public issue in the history of the Indian capital market and is poised to be India's biggest IPO till date.

The IPO values LIC at Rs 6 lakh crore.

The issue offer of the LIC will be in the price band of Rs 902 to Rs 949.

Also, the policyholders will be offered a Rs 60 discount, while for retail investors, the discount will be Rs 45.

Domestic mutual funds reportedly invested Rs 4,002 crore, accounting for a little over 71 per cent of the total anchor book portion of the much-awaited initial public offering (IPO) of Life Insurance Corporation (LIC).

The insurance major mobilised a total of Rs 5,627 crore from anchor investors on Monday.

An anchor investor in an IPO is a qualified institutional buyer (QIB) which invests before the IPO is made available to the public as per market regulator SEBI's regulations in order to instill confidence among investors.—IANS

Bajaj Allianz Life Ins. leads the private insurance sector with a growth rate of 49% in FY2022

Mumbai, Bajaj Allianz Life Insurance Company Limited, one of India's leading private life insurers, continued to clock impressive growth on individual rated new business (IRNB) premium by registering a 49.4% growth in FY2022. The company recorded the highest growth (among the top 10 private players) of 39.3% in the month of March 2022 alone, at the back of its comprehensive range of products, innovative digital services and a robust sales network.

Tarun Chugh, MD & CEO, Bajaj Allianz Life, commented, "Happy to have wrapped the previous financial year with a strong growth of 49% in individual rated new business premium (the highest amongst the top-10 private market players on IRNB basis). It's a reflection of our consolidated efforts across business parameters—including robust network of both online and offline partners, including our own agents and proprietary sales force. These are key aspects that will help us in the year ahead as well.

Bajaj Allianz Life continues to invest towards offering customer delight through a suite of self-servicing and aided service options. We are confident that as an organisation we will keep the foot on the pedal and work towards enabling many more customers achieve their life goals with us!"

Bajaj Allianz Life continues to grow rapidly with a 49.4% uptick in the IRNB premium, while the industry grew by 15.7% and the private life insurers' growth stood at 21.9% in FY2022. The company's regular premium average ticket size also elevated to Rs. 77,634 in FY2022 from Rs. 57,782 in FY2021, registering a growth of 34.4%.

The company also observed an increase in IRNB premium of Rs. 3,686 crores in FY2022 from Rs. 2,468 crores in FY2021. The renewal premium witnessed a growth of 22.4% in FY2022, rose to Rs. 6,991 crores from Rs. 5,712 crores in FY2021. The gross written premium for Bajaj Allianz Life stood at Rs. 16,127 crores in FY2022 from Rs. 12,025 crores in FY2021.

Share of retail investors in companies listed on NSE reaches all-time high of 7.42%

New Delhi, May 4 (IANS) Share of retail investors (individuals with up to Rs 2 lakh shareholding) in companies listed on NSE reached an all-time high of 7.42 per cent as on March 31, 2022 from 7.33 per cent as on December 31, 2021, as per Primeinfobase, an initiative of Prime Database Group.

In INR value terms too, retail holding in companies listed on NSE reached an all-time high of Rs 19.16 lakh crore from Rs 19.05 lakh crore on December 31, 2021, an increase of 0.56 per cent, according to Pranav Haldea, Managing Director, PRIME Database Group. Sensex and Nifty rose by 0.54 and 0.63 per cent respectively during this period. Despite share of High Net Worth Individuals (HNIs) (individuals with more than Rs 2 lakh shareholding) in companies listed on NSE declining marginally to 2.21 per cent as on March 31, 2022 from 2.28 per cent on December 31, 2021, the combined retail and HNI share reached an all-time high of 9.64 per cent.

According to Haldea, net outflows from Foreign Portfolio Investors (FPIs) of a huge Rs 1.10 lakh crore during the quarter resulted in FPIs share declining further to a 9-year low of 20.15 per cent as on March 31, 2022, from 20.71 per cent as on December 31, 2021. Most notably, FPIs pulled out Rs 69,370 crore from Financial Services and Software sector during the quarter while investing Rs 13,450 crore in Metals & Mining and Food, Beverages & Tobacco. Holding of FPIs (in INR value terms) in companies listed on NSE stood at Rs 51.99 lakh crore as on March 31, 2022, a decrease of 3.36 per cent from Rs 53.80 lakh crore as on December 31, 2021. According to Haldea, share of domestic Mutual Funds in companies listed on NSE rose for the third quarter running and reached 7.75 per cent as on March 31, 2022, up from 7.46 per cent as on December 31, 2021.

This was after 5 quarters of consecutive decline from March 31, 2020 (7.96 per cent) to June 30, 2021 (7.24 per cent). The share has increased on the back of net inflows by domestic Mutual Funds of a huge Rs 67,423 crore during the quarter. In INR value terms too, the holding of domestic Mutual Funds went up by 3.08 per cent to an all-time high of Rs 19,99 lakh crore as on March 31, 2022 from Rs 19.39 lakh crore on December 31, 2021.

Operating Officer of Eris Lifesciences Ltd., added, "The acquisition of Oaknet brings marquee brands like Cosvate and Cosmelite into the Eris portfolio. We expect to bring to bear multiple value creation levers including in-house manufacturing, new product launches, expansion of field force productivity and enhancement of operational efficiency."

70% Indian workers feel burnt out as more colleagues quit in past year

Bengaluru, May 4 (IANS) Seven in 10 office workers in India are under increased pressure at work due to more and more colleagues resigning in the past year, the highest in any region, a new report showed on Wednesday. Monotonous tasks are amplifying employee unhappiness and uncertainty and they would welcome new processes and technologies such as automation to allow them to focus on work that matters, according to the report by UiPath, an enterprise automation software company. "In India, 79 per cent of respondents said they have had to take up to six new tasks or responsibilities outside of their job description due to co-workers resigning," said Anil Bhasin, Managing Director and Vice President, UiPath-India, and South Asia. "Ninety-nine per cent feel automating certain tasks can improve their job performance by saving time, increasing productivity, and creating opportunities to focus on more important work," he added. More employees around the world are burnt out by having to take on more work due to colleagues resigning and various monotonous tasks. Alarming, 74 per cent of Indian and 68 per cent of global respondents reported that they do not know what their responsibilities are anymore, because things at work have changed so much since their coworkers quit.

While 73 per cent of Indian respondents say they are interested or could be swayed into looking for a new job in the next six months, about two in five say they are currently applying for another job, or have had interviews with another company in the past six months.

3 labourers death case: Lapse on part of Zuari Agro Chemicals, says Goa Minister

Panaji, May 4 (IANS) The state Ministry for Factories and Boilers' prima facie probe into the death of three labourers in an accident at the Zuari Agro Chemicals plant in South Goa has found lapses on part of the company's processes, Minister Nilkanth Halarnkar said on Wednesday.

Speaking to reporters a day after the accident claimed three lives, Halarnkar also said that the fatal industrial accident occurred after workers attempted to cut open a gas tank with a flaming gas cutter. "Labourers were trying to open the gas tank with a gas cutter. The nuts and bolts had rusted. This led to the blast," Halarnkar told reporters here.

"The company has committed negligence. There was no plant manager site manager (onsite)," he also said. Halarnkar also said that his department would carry out a thorough investigation into the tragedy. "Prima facie investigation has been conducted. Department will carry out a thorough investigation and it appears that there was a lapse on part of the company," Halarnkar said.

Samsung inks $1 bn 5G deal with US network operator DISH

San Francisco, May 4 (IANS) US network operator Dish has picked Samsung to supply 5G network solutions in a multi-year deal worth over $1 billion.

Samsung will deploy 5G Open Radio Access Network solutions across DISH Wireless SMART 5G network. The companies will collaborate to deploy Samsung's 5G solutions and radio units in markets across the US, supporting DISH's 5G commercial services. "Samsung's 5G solutions will play an integral role in our network expansion, giving us the flexibility to deploy our cloud-native network with software-based solutions that support advanced services and operational scalability," said John Swieringa, president and chief operating officer, DISH Wireless.

In 2020, Samsung grabbed a deal worth $6.6 billion from US carrier Verizon to supply 4G and 5G network equipment. "Samsung is excited to join this 5G journey with DISH, a pioneer in bringing new experiences to households and businesses around the country, leveraging openness and virtualisation that sit at the heart of network evolution," said Mark Louison, executive vice president and head of the Networks Business, Samsung Electronics America.

Apple hires veteran Ford executive for EV car project

San Francisco, May 4 (IANS) Apple has reportedly hired veteran Ford executive Desi Ujkashevich, as the iPhone maker plans to launch an electric car in 2024. Multiple reports claimed that Ujkashevich, who is Ford's global director of safety engineering, will join Apple to help it develop a fully electric autonomous car. Ujkashevich joined Ford 31 years ago and worked across disciplines, including developing EVs, She worked on a range of Ford and Lincoln SUVs, as well as Ford's Fiesta and Focus compact cars.

Ujkashevich could help Apple navigate regulatory hurdles the company faces in testing self-driving prototypes on public roads, reports TechCrunch.

"Her expertise in engineering and safety protocol can also help guide Apple in its project," the report mentioned late on Tuesday. The iPhone maker has partnered with a South Korean company to develop the autopilot chip for its car. According to TheElec, Apple partnered with a South Korean outsourced semiconductor assembly and test (OSAT) company to develop its car's autopilot technology.

Instagram testing TikTok-like fullscreen feed

San Francisco, May 4 (IANS) Meta-owned photo sharing platform Instagram is experimenting with full-screen vertical home feeds.

In a video posted on micro-blogging site Twitter, Instagram head Adam Mosseri confirmed the test and said that taller photos and videos would begin appearing in some feeds. "We are testing a new, immersive viewing experience in the main Home feed. If you are in the test, check it out and let me know what you think," Mosseri captioned the video on the micro-blogging platform.

According to media reports, users can still use the bottom navigation bar to access the discovery tab, Reels, shopping and their own page in the test of the full-screen home feed. Meanwhile, last month, the photo-sharing platform confirmed that it is exploring a new feature that lets users pin specific posts to their profile above their photo grid. The new feature is currently in the testing phase and is showing up for select users on the platform. Users who have access to the feature are seeing a "Pin to your profile" option that they can select from the three-dot menu next to posts.

Digital marketing of unhealthy foods, online gaming driving obesity: WHO

London, May 4 (IANS) Digital marketing of unhealthy food products to children and online gaming that compels children to a sedentary life are the main drivers of obesity, the World Health Organisation (WHO) has said.

According to the WHO European Regional Obesity Report 2022, rates of overweight and obesity have reached "epidemic proportions", with only the Americas having a higher level of obese adults than Europe. The global health body added that while nearly 60 per cent of adults and a third of children are overweight or obese, the last two years of Covid-19 pandemic made that worse.

"Obesity knows no borders. In Europe and Central Asia, no single country is going to meet the WHO Global NCD target of halting the rise of obesity," said Hans Henri P. Kluge, WHO Regional Director for Europe, while presenting the report at the European Congress on Obesity. "The countries in our Region are incredibly diverse, but every one is challenged to some degree."
